Will (Pt. II)

Son Mieux

I will smile like I mean it
To someone I don't know
I'll dance to the clockwork
As the bells sing my song

I'm just trying, trying to live a life I love
As if dying, dying is nothing I'm scared of
Simplify it till the bare bones look me in the eye tonight

I will laugh until I start to cry
I will dance until the day I die

Will I think that I've dreamed it
When I'm at heaven's gate?
Will St. Peter believe me
When I tell him why I'm late?

Don't you know that I'm just trying, trying to live a life I lo ve
As if dying, dying, is nothing I'm scared of
Simplify it till the bare bones look me in the eye tonight

I will laugh until I start to cry
I will love until I've seen this life through your eyes
I know we won't see the end of time
But we will dance until the day we die
We'll dance until the day we die

We'll dance until the day we die
We'll dance until the day we die
