

Blind Hope

Son Volt

Spend a million dream days
Shook the hand of time, served gods
Waited around the display
Saw no revelation

No good to go feet first
All distraction and hesitation
With a bucket for the leakage
Brackish feelings to bail out

Living it up on the downside
Living out what's inside
Taking it at full stride
Taking it

Here's one for you
Leave one for me
Don't mind and don't regret it
Forget what's gone and here's your warning

Bring it down and break it in
Casting it out, reeling it in
Living on blind hope again
Casting it out, reeling it in
Living on blind hope again
