

Seguin

Son Volt

Southern Pacific Railroad
Runs through my place
About thirty-five miles
South to San Antone

In Seguin, in Seguin
Where things they are so mellow
I'm so glad to be back on the scene
Back in old Seguin

Many times I've wandered
Been both East and West
I'm so glad to tell you about
The places I love best

I've been over to the Gulf Coast
And I walked around Padre Island
I'm so glad to be back on the scene
Back in old Seguin

In Seguin, in Seguin
Where things they are so mellow
I'm so glad to be back on the scene
Back in old Seguin

Barbeque's just a quarter
Beer is just thirty-five cents
You smell the hickory smoke
As you're drivin' down by the fence

There's also a lot of moonshine
And things that make you mellow
And I'm so glad to be back on the scene
Back in old Seguin

In Seguin, in Seguin
Where things they are so mellow
I'm so glad to be back on the scene
Back in old Seguin

In Seguin, in Seguin
Where things they are so mellow
I'm so glad to be back on the scene
Back in old Seguin
