

Sweet Refrain

Son Volt

Daylight brings the clues to the world to life
Make or break gotta do what it takes to survive
I'm always looking out through the window pane
You're always looking better, and that's a sweet refrain

Another day another hero is gone
Old guitars breathe out old battles fought before dawn
I'm always looking out through the window pane
You're always looking better, and that's a sweet refrain

That's all we're looking for
Pitching in for one another
And that's a sweet refrain

I think of Kid Douglas, Sluefoot Joe and what they went through Nehemiah James, Duck Holmes and the Bluefront Café crew
I'm always looking out through the window pane
You're always looking better, and that's a sweet refrain

That's all we're looking for
Pitching in for one another
And that's a sweet refrain
