

The rejected one
Became the corner stone
Keeping every wall in this building
From falling down

No time to be wasted
For the Lord is at door
The righteous may fall but
They will keep on rising up

At night I call for You Lord!
I know You love my prayers
There isn't one that You won't answer
I'll always put my faith in You

At night I call for You Lord!
I know You love my prayers
There isn't one that You won't answer
I'll always put my faith in You

I know You Lord
Can't nothing stand against
Your perfect Love
I know You're here to stay
Through every trial
I lean on You

When I walk through the valley
I know that You still got me
When I look up
I see You all around me

And only through the Son
Me and You could be One
Now that I've been reborn
You live in me

At night I call for You Lord!
I know You love my prayers
There isn't one that You won't answer
I'll always put my faith in You

At night I call for You Lord!
I know You love my prayers
There isn't one that You won't answer
I'll always put my faith in You
