

God, to be honest
I'm slowly dying

Who am I kidding?
Who am I lying to?

I been ridding solo
I'm getting tired

You're my energy
And I can't deny it

Blinded by Grace
Calling Your Name
Seeing Your face
I'll be amazed

You are my hope
I rejoice in the faith
You are my life and
I beg You to stay

I was running in circles
I was running out of faith
You came through with Your presence
I didn't know what to say
I just laid down my head
And then I said "Lord have Your way"
I was looking at the stars
And You could call them by name

I was going in the wrong direction
Only You can give me satisfaction
If I know You God
Then I already know who I am
'Cause Your heart is full of love
And makes a better man

You Gave me all these reasons
To survive these seasons
I can feel Your breeze here
Flowing with precision

If I fall today
You'll rise me up again
It's just a matter of time
(Matter of time)

If I fall today
You'll rise me up again
And I'll be ready to fly

I'm gonna fly
Yea we gon fly
Touching the sky
Yea we gon fly

(Angels angels angels in the sky)

I'm gonna fly
Yea we gon fly
Touching the sky
Yea we gon fly

God, to be honest
I'm slowly dying

Who am I kidding?
Who am I lying to?

I been ridding solo
I'm getting tired

You're my energy
And I can't deny it
