King of Kings
You're The Prince of Peace
You died for my sins
In You I overcome

This world and everything from it
You told me go and proclaim heaven has come

There ain't nothing new under the sun
The clock is ticking everything that was said will be done
The Father revealed Himself in The Son
The Good shepherd left behind the ninety-nine for the one
There ain't nothing new under the sun
The clock is ticking everything that was said will be done hm
The Father revealed Himself, in The Son
The Good shepherd left behind the 99 for the 1

I ain't waiting for a season
So that I can trust in You, God
I got way too many reasons
To remain here at Your feet, oh God!
I ain't waiting for a season
So that I can trust in You, God
I got way too many reasons
To remain here at Your feet, oh God!

Abba God
With You, I'm made Right
Because Jesus Christ
Has torn the veil down

In Your Light
You made me Your child
When I was a stranger to
Your Ways and Love

There ain't nothing new under the sun
The clock is ticking everything that was said will be done hm
The Father revealed Himself, in The Son

I ain't waiting for a season
So that I can trust in You, God
I got way too many reasons
To remain here at Your feet, o, God!
I ain't waiting for a season
So that I can trust in You, God
I got way too many reasons
To remain here at Your feet, oh God!

I ain't waiting to trust in You
I got reasons to remain here, God

I ain't waiting to trust in You
I got reasons to remain here, God
