

You never change, God, You remain the same
Seasons may change, but You stand still
You did not spare Your own Son for my sake
Word made flesh to pay for my mistakes

I've been caught up in my feelings (God, You know)
I just cannot find the meaning (Time to go)
By myself, Lord, I can't make it
Father, show me the way to go
I want to be bold and obey Your word
Don't want to go cold in this frozen world
Lead my spirit home, don't leave me alone
I just wanna flow in Your presence, Lord
They try to change me into someone else
When You define me, You're the Great I Am
I'll never run away from You again
Your ways are higher, I can't understand
You call life into existence (Yeah)
You call me to make a difference (Yeah)
People fear the sound of Your voice
It will happen if You say so

You never change, God, You remain the same (You remain the)
Seasons may change, but You stand still
You did not spare Your own Son for my sake (For my sake, oh)
Word made flesh to pay for my mistakes

Tell me if you've changed
Tell me if you've changed, yeah
Oh, can we talk the same? Yeah
Tell me if you've changed, yeah, oh
Looking back at the times when my spirit fell
I imagine just running to Jesus
When I stumbled, I looked for the meaning
Condemnation in my mind, I let it go
The pressures of life, I let it go
Depression, anxiety, let it go
Looking up unto my Father's love

You never change, God, You remain the same (You remain the)
Seasons may change, but You stand still
You did not spare Your own Son for my sake (For my sake, oh)
Word made flesh to pay for my mistakes

Yeah, yeah
Woah, our God in Heaven
I'm Yours forever
