

Sun Rises

Sondae

You go by so many names
But Abba's what I'm calling You
And not one I'll say in vain
If I call, then I'm needing You

I can't relate sometimes
Sitting 'round waiting for You
Show me Your face this time
I'm already falling for You

I need more faith this time
Walking on water's easy
As long as You're by my side

Shout out to the feelings
They show me what I shouldn't trust
Shout out to the seasons
They show me that God is enough
Shout out to the bad times
They show me I'm taken care of
Shout out to the good times
They show me the sun rises again (again), again (again), again (again)
They show me the sun rises again (again), again (again), again (again)

If not for You
My lungs would have no reason to breathe, to breathe, yeah
If not for You
My heart would have no rhythm to beat, to beat, yeah
If not for You
My lungs would have no reason to breathe, to breathe
If not for You
My heart would have no rhythm to beat, to beat, yeah

Shout out to the feelings
They show me what I shouldn't trust
Shout out to the seasons
They show me that God is enough
Shout out to the bad times
They show me I'm taken care of
Shout out to the good times
They show me the sun rises again (again), again (again), again (again)
They show me the sun rises again (again), again (again), again (again)
