

Patience

Sondre Lerche

Time moves like a glacier through my mind
Glides by like songs I'll never find

Darling do you wanna hear?
Such a pretty little thing
That I pulled out of thin air
That I wrote down in your blood

Patience, I'm coming

Time moves like a glacier through my mind
Glides by like songs I'll never find

Darling do you wanna see?
This performance piece of work
That you sometimes sleep next to
That I loosely based on you

Patience, I'm coming
Patience, I'm coming
I once met a guy 'bout my size
And he said "I can't believe no one knows who you are"
And I thought "Oh well, the stars are at it again, it's a quiet night somewhere"
"Thanks for autographing my kid", she said "I had it tattooed"

"You helped me through some dark times"
A woman on the verge of tears, after midnight, in a parking lot in Denver, told me in confidence, "You should be on The Voice, Adam would love you"
But I thought, shrug emoji, shrug emoji
Wind blows through a field of green
Purple heart, we can only take so much
But some have to take so much more

Patience, I'm coming
Patience, I'm coming

Patience, I'm coming (Moves like a glacier through my mind)
Patience, I'm coming (Glides by like songs I'll never find)
Patience, I'm coming (Moves like a glacier through my mind)
Patience, I'm coming (Glides by like songs I'll never find)
Patience, I'm coming (Moves like a glacier through my mind)
Patience, I'm coming
