

FIND PEACE

Songer

If I put it on my life
I couldn't rap, I'd fucking die
And I'm live, this is album number five
I never rode the wave bitch, I swam against the tide
People grabbing up my ankles for the ride
I lost change, I got change, I never changed the way I write
People looking at my pockets, can't look me in the eyes
Fuck away my stress, give my baby girl the size
She orgasmed outta nowhere, that don't come as a surprise
Throw my wallet in the sky, try and elevate my money
I write about my feelings cause my therapist would fuck me
Seven days a week, I point up and know I'm lucky
I ain't living by your script and if you love me then you love me
I wish that I was happier for real
Reach out through all my music, I can show you how I feel
Explain it to the labels as they offer me a deal
If I'm giving you my pain, I need more than half a mill

Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace
Find peace
Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace
Find peace

Gunpoint doesn't scare you when you know you're the one
Could hold my head to a gun, I'd rob its bullets for fun
My vision's been a little different like I stared at the sun
Riding shotty with my dad, I hope he's proud of his son
Self sabotage, I can turn a theory to a fact without trying Kill my laugh and start crying, I just wanna be young
Guess I peaked at seventeen, my only struggle is fun
Now I'm fucking twenty-three, I'm tryna pattern my lungs
I should take care of myself
When the music's said and done, I'll probably care for my health
But right now it's pipe down, tryna pattern some peace
I can wake up in the morning by the skin of my teeth
Couple voices in my head, wish they'd get a divorce
Cause I'm jumping every hurdle but I'm dead on a horse
I'm blind driving, hand behind my back with Mike Tyson
Ever kill my fear then don't expect no remorse

Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace
Find peace
Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace, find peace, find peace, find peace
Find peace
Find peace
