

Infinity

Songer

I don't wanna talk anymore oooh
I think we both know how I feel
I don't wanna talk anymore no way
I think we both know this is real

Trust
You feel like infinity
Trust
You feel like infinity
Trust
You feel like infinity
Trust
You feel like infinity

I don't wanna talk
I think we both know how I feel
Mmmh

Like looking at the page my g
Tryna chase my dreams
Wish my girl success
It taste like me

People talk behind my back
I'm rarely phased my g
Should have two phones
Two Face IDs

You fake bitches
Spending money like I hate riches
Paranoid of losing my friends
I take pictures

Diamonds on the photo with Luke
The frame glistens
Nobodys ever said I was average
If they've listened

This ain't different
My names James
Your misses loves dick
Names Richard

Hardly be helped
My names Songer
It's a bar in itself
So the reason that I rap
I play the cards up that's dealt

I struggle asking for help
I think I'm Destiny's child
If you can memorise my lyrics
Then remember to smile

And habitually I'm smoking
If I'm settling down
But then the turbulence will kill me

With my head in the clouds

Go full whenever
My bredrin had a difficult day
Just call whenever

I write a song about being depressed
It's cool whatever
Must do it for image
Saw Songer last week
Shouting spilling is lickage

My dad is really sad
I think he misses his missus
You're missing the lyrics
To be fair I'm not sad just lost
And there's a difference

Lying so much on their insta
Can hear the pictures
My income is nothing but net
I can hear the swishes

Gotta be classic
Bounce what I normally do
If you think I chat shit
Then I'm talking to you

If you'd have done it how I done it
You'd have already blew
I blow up when I want
No conforming to you

You don't look better than God
I'm not religious
There's something or tell me there's not
If I saw him face to face
Think I'd tell him to stop
Why you putting devil's lettuce in a medicine pot

I turned you into a trophy someone else is lifting
I can't keep some people round me when their souls are switching
I got here tired on my own because I know no different
If you're my soul mate you're my soul mate cause your soul is gifted

Trust
You feel like infinity
Trust
You feel like infinity
Trust
You feel like infinity
Trust
You feel like infinity

I think we both know how it feels
I think we both know how it
