

Outside The Box

Songer

Sicker rapper what you'll never find
Eyes closed, I see greatness, I'm forever blind
My brain never stops workin', I said never mind
I'm wide away when I stay sittin' in this bed at night

And I can see the future with my eyes closed
Watch this: big yard, big whips, nice clothes
I ain't even dropped yet, but it feels quite close
You're scared to fall, you're living up on tight ropes

And this is real rap, this ain't an Insta hustle
I ain't big bone, calm, cause the dick's a muscle
She ain't worthy of my bars, but give that bitch a couple
I ain't a snitch, but if I did I'd give her sister trouble

I only count the wins but caught a couple Ls
I beat a Scottish girl... and I knew her Motherwell
I'm kinda genius, funny how I'm dumb as well
It's cause we drink a lot, and we love to bun as well

A word against my missus and your exposed
I hit the Shard with my wifey doin' ten toes
All this voddy in my liver 'til it explodes
I just want my head sloppy and my neck froze

Yeah
I guess I'm halfway
This ain't about flows, this is what the bars say
I tell my wifey 'please don't worry 'bout your past dates'
I made mistakes too, so we can sit and laugh babe

Let's raise a drink and then get rich together
These lines are Rick Ross fam, we gon' be Rich Forever
I tell my baby that I love her, put our lips together
I make her smarter when she swallow fam, my kids are clever

Confessions of my mind, it's kinda explicit
But it ain't my fault, I swear the net did it
I got this crazy talent fam, it's time to flex wid it
Cause I ain't even in the game and still the best in it

Kiss Lucy on the cheek and tell her stop crying
Only time she seen me shed tears is when my dog died
Dogs can sense fear, guess she knew me well
I probably got her fuckin' stoned the way my Truey smell

Yeah
We're in different leagues
You're the type to get gassed off of limousines
Actin' like my sons, look at all these Billie Jeans!
You silly fiends, I'm havin' milli dreams

I'm outside the box forever
Mmmmm
And you'll never bring me down
And the sun will shine forever
Mmmmm

But the rain keeps pouring down

Forever proud of what my dad done
He proud too because he went and raised a mad son
I go and shake his hand and hug him when the track's done
I'm actin' like a rapper cause I AM one

Anxiety can fuck off, this is my time
I'm never gassed off the grammys cause I write mine
I put my hips against her hips cause she quite fine
I'm drinking whilst I'm dancing up behind her, that's a white wine

Word plays crazy, we're on different pages
Employ my whole team fam, and pay 'em silly wages
20/20, worldwide, we killing different stages
Couple watches on my table, I got different faces

"Songer stole bars" fuck off, no I never
If you don't like what I'm doing, calm, do it better
I'm eating Fruitella... you think Chewit's better?
Cause I'm a bad man fam, something you are never

I'm kinda stupid if I bun the cheddar
I'm kinda cocky once I've drunk a Stella
I'm probably chattin' shit, how I'm gonna slump a fella
I'd get Rihanna so wet she needs an Umbrella

I'm outside the box forever
Mmmmm
And you'll never bring me down
And the sun will shine forever
Mmmmm
But the rain keeps pouring down
