

Cotton Hill

Songs: Ohia

there are ones more worthy than i can be counted on they are ones provoked to confound distinction good and wrong my saying too much on the side if our two friends condemn one virtue one verity we err in our duty to utter truths when we have one(x2)