Songs: Ohia

Conscript fathers, when they were by to see not inspired by our lack of honesty only then could i lament their services as fortunate men who's a fortunate man, there's a fortunate man i play my part to abuse you as well as i can as well as on the first occasion, as well as in the end only then could i regret my service as a fortunate man who's a fortunate man there are no fortunate men
