

Program: The Mask

Songs: Ohia

where the blue of the night meets the gold light of day i know someone(x2) waits for me faithless sinners dry your tears(x2) and your lamentations when the angels of the lord smile upon you they'll be bringing your salvation
i know someone(x2) waits who waits for me.
