

Sail Away

Sonia Dada

Everybody laugh
Everybody cry
Everybody up in the air
Clap your hands
Everybody fly
'Cause when you're gone
It ain't about pride
The idea was to laugh more than you cried
Through the pouring rain
Through the pouring rain
Oh, ringing out your bloody shirt trying to explain

Everybody lookin' for sunshine
Everybody wanna to see the sun on a cloudy day
Everybody lookin' to find the time
They have for themselves and sail away
Oh, sail away

Anyone hear anymore
Howling out in pain in the house next door
On the living room floor
With the TV set
Channel 9 will not be fine I wonder where my changer went
And I'm lookin' said I'm lookin'
For a cigarette
Ain't found one yet

Everybody lookin' for sunshine
Everybody wanna to see the sun on a cloudy day
Everybody lookin' something to find
They have for themselves and sail away

Sometimes it rains a little and sometimes not at all

Hey hey hey...

Everybody laugh
Everybody cry
Everybody up in the air
Clap your hands
And everybody fly
Sail away
Sail away
Sail away
Sail away
I been waitin' while I been hearin' you cry
Sail away
Sail away
