

Tell Me Something That I Don't Know

Sonic Boom Six

Rebel alliance,
Tunes dedicated to all her malcontents,
Still shooting their mouths off,
Don't ever stop,
Yo.
From the start to the end of this We don't know where or what it is That's driving us to doing this
I realize I run the risk
Of sounded cynical
But man it's a miracle
To make it through an interview
Without hearing political
Call it hypocritical
Knock yourself out
Forgive us for the lack of love affairs that we sing about
If I'm making a statement by simply having a statement to make
Then give me permission to clarify our position
We can't expect a thing to change 'cause we said how
But I can't be the only one with eyes in my head now Some things that pass me by (?)
Like seventy thousand people in Iraq are all dead now.
Well that's exactly what we should be ignoring (?) 'Cause kids find all that kind of talk boring
Well alright wake me up if you've been hearing me snoring
There might be other places we've been waging a war in.

Won't take the world with a protest song
Tell me something that I don't know.
You can only clench your fists for so long
Tell me something that I don't know.
Turn 'em off, coming on too strong
Tell me something that I don't know.
But I think having a dream ain't wrong
Oh, I really think so

Wot? I only wanna set this straight
I'm not a communist because there's issues I don't rate I'm not a fucking hippy 'cause they're races I don't hate
I'm not a - easy tiger, we're in England, it's cool mate.
There's obviously something in your head that's been wired wrong
If you care about something then talk about it on that song
Well point taken, it's all been done before There's no money in raggacore we shouldn't bother any more.

As far as I can see it's up to we to want to try to make
A kinda difference, a minor kinda give and take
And if I change my mind it's all I leave behind then great,

And you can carry on with writing all about it
What you wanna what you gotta never knock a mother fucker for trying Especially when you make a whole career out of lying
About the world then don't fucking tempt me!
And if that's too political than to your MP.

Won't take the world with a protest song
Tell me something that I don't know.
You can only clench your fists for so long
Tell me something that I don't know.
Turn 'em off, coming on too strong
Tell me something that I don't know.
But I think having a dream ain't wrong
Oh, I really think so

We'll never turn away from having something to say upon
the new rhyme
We'll never turn away from having something to say not in this lifetime
We'll never turn away from having something to say upon
the new rhyme
Well this is Laila K, and we got something to say, and this is our time.
