Lord, You see into my heart
There is no place I can hide
When I feel I've been apart
From You, from You

Broken I bow at your feet
Surrendering all that I am
Lord, I know I am complete
In You, only You

So here is my life
I give it all
I'm placing it in Your hands

Mold me and make me
Let me fall into Your arms of love again
Where I should have always been

My sin You remember no more
Your mercy has covered my scars
Your healing has welcomed me home
I am new in You

So here is my life
I give it all
I'm placing it in Your hands

Mold me and make me
Let me fall into Your arms of love again
Where I should have always been

Here is my life
I give it all
I'm placing it in Your hands

Mold me and make me
Let me fall into Your arms of love again
Where I should have always been
