How many times I've longed for You
I long for You once more
One moment in Your presence Lord
Is all I'm asking for

I will seek You till I find You
Just to touch You is what I'm living for

Let Your glory flood my life
Let Your beauty fill my sight
Come and carry me away
Only then will I be satisfied

Let Your glory flood my life
Let Your beauty fill my sight
Come and carry me away
Only then will I be satisfied

To lay aside the things I love
My throne, my crown, my sin
Abandon all to touch Your heart
Is my desire again

I will seek You till I find You
Just to touch You is what I'm living for

Let Your glory flood my life
Let Your beauty fill my sight
Come and carry me away
Only then will I be satisfied
