Sonny Digital

I just got back in motherfucking LA
The world is so motherfucking great
The bitches so motherfucking great
The motherfucking food is amazing
The weed is so motherfucking great
I might not never fly away
I can't never stay awake
I can't never stay awake
Back in LA
Yeah we back in molly hood
Yeah we call that Hollywood
God we know this shit ain't good
Back in LA
Where my migos speakin' spanish
I don't really understand it
Yeah I'm still from Atlanta

Back in them Holly wood hill
Looking for thrills nigga for real
Every house worth like a mill
How can I chill this shit is surreal
There's so much we did they don't give
Everyday it feel like live
My partners for bottles for sips
But any day it can get real
We in the field, it is what it is
You got what you live by
I love some roses
And chicken and waffles
So that's what I live by Counting the killers that's in LA
Move round the city like tidal waves
Too much traffic on the interstate
I might never catch a flight away

I just got back in motherfucking LA
