

Dawn

Sonny James

Dawn...the cruel night is gone
I've cried the whole night long
Because you're gone
Dawn...the darkness disappears
And daylight dries my tears
I welcome dawn
Somehow I keep from crying through the day
With friends around
But every night when I'm alone
The tears come falling down
Gone...is love's sweet magic power
These are the lonely hours
From dusk 'til dawn
