

Liars

Sonohra

I Can't sleep tonight
How can I face another day?
I try to turn away
So I can hear them talk no more
All I'm trying to do is hold on strong
But how can I find my way?
Hiding from the world that burned my dreams
I'm falling down!

We just can't afford to pay for all their mistakes
It's about time that we should be paid off
Still they don't seem to grow a guilty conscience our lives
They are killing our dreams
And crawling away now
Liars
What did they say?
It's time they stopper these endless lias

I can't get it right
I never seem to find my way
There must be something wrong
But no one thinks they are to blame
All I'm trying to do is keeping sane
But how can I find my way?
Hunting for the cheat that burned my dreams
I'm falling down!

We just can't afford to pay for all their mistakes
It's about time that we should be paid off
Still they don't seem to grow a guilty conscience
The thirst for power makes their evil souls unfold
They are stealing our lives
They are killing our dreams
And crawling away now
Liars.
That did they say?
It's time they stopped these endless lias

We just can't afford to pay to all their mistakes
It's about time that we should be paid off
Still, they don't seem to grow a guilty conscience
The thirst for power makes their evil souls unfold
They are stealing our lives
They are killing our dreams
And crawling away now
Liars
What did they say?
It's time they stopped these endless lies.
