

Self Sabotage

SonReal

You told me things I didn't wanna hear so I would shut you out Sometimes I have a hard time listening when I run my mouth (run my mouth, run my mouth, yeah)

L and W's I get em both somehow they even out
But early on I realized your something I can't be without (be w ithout, be without, yeah)

Self sabotage again
Lucky I let me in

Cuz I need you more than you need me
You think I don't I'm good at acting
Both you and I know deep down I bleed for you
Again and again
Came for you when the tide rolled in
Yeah, caught my eye like some good lighting
When winds blow south I'll keep on fighting for you
Again and again

I'm not rewinding
I'm not rewinding
No, I'm just trying to figure this shit all out
Said I wouldn't ever close the door
On all that other shit I said before
But what do I know, what do I know, how do I go around it
We're on a water bed I'm floating
I wonder if it will capsize before I jump out

Self sabotage again
Lucky I let me in

Cuz I need you more than you need me
You think I don't I'm good at acting
Both you and I know deep down I bleed for you
Again and again
Came for you when the tide rolled in
Yeah, caught my eye like some good lighting
When winds blow south I'll keep on fighting for you
Again and again
