I'll hold you down
If you wait for me if you wait for me yeah
Just hold me down
And I'll wait for you yeah I'll wait for you yeah

You sitting home on your porch singing those were the days
It's funny how them stories only one call away
Things been little quiet less visitors today
But it'll be alright like my momma's momma say
Sometimes I'm doing nothing and I have a thought to call
But then I get a text and forget about it all
But you still on the porch daydreaming of it all
The same way you do in the summer or the fall

Lucky I been counting my stripes
Scars won't ever heal over night
Trying to save the day Carey Price
But I ain't superman when I write

I'll hold you down
Not just when the times right
I'll hold you down
Cause I need
To hold you down
Not just when my mind right
I'll hold you down
7 a week
And I could never give up on something that's my fight
So let me work a little more on me
And hold you down
Not just when my mind right
I'll hold you down
Wait for me, for me yeah

(Ooh, yeah yeah-eh, yeah yeah-uh, oh no)

I drove out to see you with my girl in my arm
Played your piano and we jammed out a song like
Ladidada ain't no keys I could touch
That could ever mean much as it do to show up yeah
We all in the moment singing those were the days
It's funny how them stories just a stone throw away
Same bullshit, I could learn from ya
It don't mean much 'cept the world to ya

Lucky I been counting my stripes
Scars won't ever heal over night
Trying to save the day Carey Price
But I ain't superman when I write

I'll hold you down
Not just when the times right
I'll hold you down
Cause I need
To hold you down
Not just when my mind right
I'll hold you down

7 a week
And I could never give up on something that's my fight
So let me work a little more on me
And hold you down
Not just when my mind right
I'll hold you down
Wait for me, for me yeah

Lucky I been counting my stripes
Scars wont ever heal over night
Trying to save the day Carey Price
But I ain't superman when I write

I'll hold you down
If you wait for me if you wait for me yeah
Just hold me down
And I'll wait for you yeah I'll wait for you yeah
I'll hold you down
If you wait for me if you wait for me yeah
Just hold me down
And I'll wait for you yeah I'll wait for you I'm there
