Na-na-na-na-na
Na-na-na-na-na

Said she found me from her ex man
Who'da ever thought that toxic shit would turn to lessons?
She said, "This is weird, but I feel like you're my best friend
I don't even know you, but you help me when I'm stressing
Always struggled with depression, you give me that serotonin
When my head go to that dead end
In fact, one night I was tripping off some shit that I don't do now
Almost OD'd, woke up in a hospital with a blue gown
And your wife was my nurse, I'm from Vancouver too
Funny how you never think this shit can happen to you
Serendipity is something didn't know before that
'Cause your music got me clean, been three years since I cracked
Yeah, I fell in love with me, with your words in my head
Gave me confidence when I didn't wanna get outta bed
Yeah, I know there's other people out there singing along
But when you write songs, I always feel"

It's just you and me
You and me
It's just you and me, me, me
You and me

Said he found me from his best friend
Said he's first year college in Chicago on the West End
"And I don't normally message people like this, but I have to
You my favourite artist and the reason that I rap too
Yeah, I lost my dad too, got a lot in common with you
No, this ain't no Stan shit, don't wanna bring no drama to you
But I got something I gotta get off my chest
Last month, I found my girl's pregnant, I been mess
But she say she wanna keep it and I have her respect
So I'ma hold it down even though I'm scared to death
When I see you on the 'Gram with your kids, it give me hope, man
Life be moving fast, but you calm it like a slow jam
Grip the wheel with both hands, bumping all your flows, man
You make me wanna grab the pen again and give another go, man
I know there's other people out there singing along
But when you write songs, I always feel"

It's just you and me
You and me
It's just you and me, me, me (Yeah)
You and me

Yeah, lately I been feeling hella distant
Writing all these poems like no one listening
I get so caught in the vision
But when I read these messages, it let me know my mission
All I ever wanted with this was to make a difference
And it take courage to express yourself, so to you, kudos
So as I sit here writing this, just know I'm just like you though
So if you're ever going through it, you know where to find me
The more I grow, I think the more I'm finding

It's just you and me
You and me
It's just you and me, me, me
You and me
