

New World Today

Sons Of Apollo

Why do we fight all we're living for?
This generation decline
It's not enough we're conflicted
In search of something divine

In the age of modern man
No more playing by the rules
It seems no one gives a damn
Oh, so many fools
We're all living in a cloud
We're all living in a dream
We only do what we're not allowed
In the land of the free

Illusion's reality
Residing beyond hope and fantasy
Divided by our destiny
This is your life
This is the new world today

Hey, yeah!

This ecstasy that we're looking for
Seems to confuse and divide, hah!

We break down and rebuild the walls
We rise and drop from grace
#metoo, #youtoo, we fall
This subhuman race
Pledge allegiance to our God
Today it's not P.C.
Take a knee, now are you a fraud?
Oh say, I can't see

Colliding with all we conceal
Deciding we know all than what we feel
We somehow survive the surreal
This is our lives
This is the new world today

Hey, yeah!

We can't undo yesterday's tomorrow
When something new was still so real
Now who will take the lead, who will follow?
The day has dawned, unveil the new reveal

What the hell were you thinking?
We're now worlds apart
Poker face where the eyes ain't blinking
Inside a frozen heart
In solitude, we live in silence
And now we start again
Between the lines and compromises
Now we fall, now we descend

Blind tomorrow

And tell me what you see
Lead or follow
Your pride is your disease

In the age of modern man
No more playing by rules
It seems that nobody gives a damn
Oh, so many fools
We all live in a cloud
We all live in a dream
Only do what we're not allowed
In the land of the free

Blind tomorrow
Tell me what you see
Lead or follow
Pride is your disease
Find the reason
Chained by your design
Know the feeling
We're running out of time

Blind tomorrow
So come on, tell me what you see
Lead or follow
Your pride is your disease
Find the reason
I'm chained by your design
Know the feeling
You know we're running out of time, stop

Hey, yeah!

We can't undo yesterday's tomorrow
When something new was still so real
Now who will take the lead, who will follow?
The day has dawned, unveil the new reveal

We can't undo yesterday's tomorrow
When something new was still so real
Now who will take the lead, who will follow?
The day has dawned, and we're all gone
Rely upon, unveil the new reveal
The new day has dawned, we're bringing you the new reveal
