

Head Above The Water

Sons Of The East

So you think that you might
Slide away in the night
Get away from it all for once
Take the back seat of the bus going south

Yeah I know there's a cost
You said the same thing all along
And I don't know if it's friend or thief
Comes 'round to steal you away

Well you try to keep your head above the water
I know it ain't easy now
So lay down in my arms and let me hold you
It gets better somehow

You don't let much get you down
But now your luck's running out
And the game isn't easy to play
Let me come and steal you away

Well you try to keep your head above the water
I know it ain't easy now
So lay down in my arms and let me hold you
It gets better somehow
