

Lost Cause

Sons Of The East

Calm it down baby, can't you see you're juvenile
I thought for a while, my world was your smile
Now it seems like the time is getting away
I thought I was safe, for another day

Now I know bad thoughts are nothing when you're in my head
Maybe it's a lost cause, but I'll never forget
How your eyes shone bright and my heart was a brimming cup
Maybe it's a lost cause, but I'll keep looking up

Please please baby don't you want to hear the truth
I can't deny, I was stolen by you
Harsh I know but I really got to help myself
I come right down, now you're giving me hell

Now I know bad thoughts are nothing when you're in my head
Maybe it's a lost cause, but I'll never forget
How your eyes shone bright and my heart was a brimming cup
Maybe it's a lost cause, but I'll keep looking up
