

Not All My Fault

Sons Of The East

There's a weeping man
By the low tide
Got an outstretched hand
Appealing to my good side
Gon' stand all alone like he's only the sufferer
Of his own fate
Got a bad side choice he's only gonna dream
He's in his good place

I know I'm lost somewhere beyond blue
I still feel your hand in mine
Try to move on but I can't find my way
It's not all my fault this time

Oh change
Don't come easy
And love ain't no love
Gonna free me
Gonna free me now

I know I'm lost somewhere beyond blue
I still feel your hand in mine
Try to move on but I can't find my way
Not all my fault this time

I know I'm lost but I can't find my way
Still feel your hand in mine
I try to move on somewhere beyond blue
Not all my fault this time
I try to move on but I can't live without your love
It's not all my fault this time
No it ain't
No it ain't
No it ain't all my fault
Not this time, baby
