

Tail Lights

Sons Of The East

Stumble through the storm
I can feel shelter coming on
I get a little hunger way down low
I was blinded by the fading afterglow

I was standing on the corner watching the tail lights
Disappear into the night
Well, I heard you tell me everything was gonna be alright
Never told me how you'd leave it all behind

There's a cold wind coming down
On the streets of a dirty town
And I could tell ya where I been
But I can't tell ya 'bout the state I'm in

I was standing on the corner watching the tail lights
Disappear into the night
Well, I heard you tell me everything was gonna be alright
Never told me how you'd leave it all behind

I was standing on the corner watching the tail lights
Disappear into the night
Well, I heard you tell me everything was gonna be alright
Never told me how you'd leave it all behind
Never told me how
