

Undone

Sons Of The East

Heaven help you
If you ever lose
Lay your head down
Nothing else to do

If you stumble it's a long way down
You'd be coming up for air right now
Heaven help you
If you ever lose

There's only so long you can keep me on the run
No sitting on the fence
You're not so innocent at all
Has everything we had finally come undone?
I know it don't seem real
I'm not your even keel no more

Heaven help you
If you can't come down
Outta your head
Feet above the ground

Never really know the reasons why
Before you jump you better know how high
Heaven help you
If you can't come down

There's only so long you can keep me on the run
No sitting on the fence
You're not so innocent at all
Has everything we had finally come undone?
I know it don't seem real
I'm not your even keel no more

Heaven help you
If you can't come down
Outta your head
Feet above the ground

Outta your head
Feet above the ground
