

You Might Think

Sons Of The East

Gotta leave another town
Why you come and go so fast?
Like the twinkle in my eye
I guess I'm coming 'round at last

Watch you go and hold my breath
Moon so bright I think I'll die
I was saving all my love
What you gonna put me through?

Where do we begin?
I just wanna hold ya
And maybe you might think
I never cared at all

Shiver in my bed
Down my body, head to toe
Tryna find the words to speak
And I don't wanna know

Why you putting out my fire
Pushing embers in my eyes
Now the light is fading low
I'm wishing I was wrong

Where do we begin?
I just wanna hold ya
And maybe you might think
I never cared at all

Can we go back to the start?
Maybe it's all over
And you might think
There's nothing there at all

Where do we begin?
I just wanna hold ya
And maybe you might think
I never cared at all

Can we go back to the start?
Maybe it's all over
And maybe you might think
There's nothing there at all
