Sons Of Zion

Yeah

This one here's for the brothers and sisters
Watching now

Where have you been?
The lady pulled me closer, asking
You still chasing dreams?
Is it everything you hoped for?
The house looked the same
The lining on the bed, the color of pain
But one thing has changed
My love for my family has grown with it's age

So when I'm on the road
I feel you beside me, you're something that I hold
And when I'm on the stage
Your spirit still remains

'Cause I know it, when I feel it
That I won't be alone today
Making tracks from the top to the bottom
It's only just a thought away
One day, I'll be back again
So I'll keep you in my heart till then
Something's bound to take me

Home, home
My home is where your heart is
Home, home
My home is where your heart is

State Highway 1
My car full of gas and my back to the sun
I can't seem to remember
Doing this with you in '03
You put family first when times were the worst
You called me your treasure
And after all that we've been through
There's one thing I remember

So when I'm on the road
I feel you beside me, you're something that I hold
And when I'm on the stage
Your spirit still remains

'Cause I know it, when I feel it
That I won't be alone today
Making tracks from the top to the bottom
It's only just a thought away
One day, I'll be back again
So I'll keep you in my heart till then
Something's bound to take me

Home, home
My home is where your heart is
Home, home
My home is where your heart is

'Cause I know it, when I feel it
That I won't be alone today
Making tracks from the top to the bottom
It's only just a thought away
One day, I'll be back again
So I'll keep you in my heart till then
Something's bound to take me

Home, home
My home is where your heart is
Home, home
My home is where your heart is
