

In Due Time

Sonta

I'm tired of being the one you lie to
Is that what it takes to be your wife
You gone find out when I feel like it's the time to
Cuz times due I stayed true I played fool but I'm done
What hurts the most is I think I made you a better man for the next woman

You be tweaking
Always saying you never see me
Then we link and you never believe me
When I say you the only one I'm seeing
I'm tired of all the accusing
You accuse me of the shit you doing
I'm tired of you picking and choosing
Them hoes not worth what you gone be losing
Somebody called ya phone last night
I can tell that ya attitude changed
I'm knowing that you finna pick a fight and of course I am to blame
Man that shit is in the way and that's shit you need to save
Cuz I don't wanna hear nothing you got to say
When you wanna cheat you say you need some space
Get yo shit and get up outta my place
Fuck up outta my face

I'm tired of being the one you lie to
Is that what it takes to be your wife
You gone find out when I feel like it's the time to
Cuz times due I stayed true I played fool but I'm done
What hurts the most is I think I made you a better man for the next woman

And let me tell you something don't ever think I'm weak
I'm just a good woman and you thinking shit sweet
But ain't shit sweet but the woods that you smoke
You laughing cuz you think this shit is a joke
Then when I snap you say I'm doing the most
That's just cuz all the promises you broke
Who is this I don't know him
I say where you at you say I'm with foenem
I say okay cool drop yo lo den
You say why you tweaking girl I'm with bro nem
See it's always the same ol' shit
You probably with that same ol' bitch
That you said I don't gotta worry about
Stay with her cuz you can't come back to my house
