

When I'm feeling lonely, lonely, lonely
Will you come hold me, hold me, hold me
Feel your skin on my skin, I never felt this feeling

When I'm feeling lonely, lonely, lonely
Will you come hold me, hold me, hold me
Feel your skin on my skin
It's only the beginning

The love I got for you is hot for you, only for you
And for your love, it's no telling the things that I would do
But will you catch me if I fall?
Are you willing to risk it all?
Can you show me that I don't need nobody else, nobody else
Cause baby I'm not another notch under your belt
Show me you care cause

When I'm feeling lonely, lonely, lonely
Will you come hold me, hold me, hold me
Feel your skin on my skin, I never felt this feeling
When I'm feeling lonely, lonely, lonely
Will you come hold me, hold me, hold me
Feel your skin on my skin
It's only the beginning

Baby I miss you I'm going crazy
I can't stay mad at you boy
No matter how hard I try
I want you in my life, so look me in my eye
And don't you lie

When I'm feeling lonely lonely lonely
Will you come hold me hold me hold me
Feel your skin on my skin I never felt this feeling
When I'm feeling lonely, lonely, lonely
Will you come hold me, hold me, hold me
Feel your skin on my skin
It's only the beginning
