

Who Is She

Sonta

Boy tell me who is she?
What's her name?
Where she from?
You playing games
Let me see your phone
You been stringing me along
I'm letting go
Tell me now who is she?
Where she from?
Come on nigga
Don't you lie to me or stunt
I might be young
But I'm far from dumb

Kept it 100 gave you everything you wanted
Guess that wasn't enough
I kept myself up
Got my hair did
How you want me?
Still wanted
Someone else's love
There was times I blames myself
How did I let you do it to me (hey)
Sometimes I feel I played myself
With my own insecurities

I'll prolly never trust another man
I'll prolly never fall in love again
I saw your phone ringing
So I answered it
She said that you and her
Were more than friends

Boy tell me who is she?
What's her name?
Where she from?
You playing games
Let me see your phone
You been stringing me along
I'm letting go
Tell me now who is she?
Where she from?
Come on nigga
Don't you lie to me or stunt
I might be young
But I'm far from dumb

You forgot to put your phone on
Do not disturb nigga
Now I'm talking to your side bitches
Say you hurting nigga
Who'd a thought we'd end up like this
You got ya nerve nigga
Telling her the same shit you told me
I'm hurt nigga
Who was there for you
When ya dirty ass was locked up

Who was there
When you was down and out
With hella problems
Took you back after
I caught you fucking round with Tasha
You said you wouldn't cheat again
You deserve an oscar

I'll prolly never trust another man
I'll prolly never fall in love again
I saw your phone ringing
So I answered it
She said that you and her
Were more than friends

Boy tell me who is she?

Where she from?
You playing games
