

Word To My Ex

Sonta

So he call my phone
And he wanna see wassup
Said he wanna work on us
But there is no more love
Boy I'm done
Because having my heart broken
Is no fun
I'm over you now, so don't come
Try tryna act like you've changed so much
Don't wanna hear none of your excuses
Cause it's useless
You had my heart and you abused it
So what you have, is what you have
You had my mind gone in the wind
But you didn't know
What you had back then
And you wanna try it again
But there are no second chances
We will always be friends
But I won't let you be my man
I hear the things you saying
But there are no second chances

We was at the bottom
Baby that's where we started
But now we keep fighting
Cause you hurting my heart and

It wasn't easy
But I had to let you go
Cause I had to let you see
That your life would be lonely without me
So now its too late
Cause your expiration date
So I'm throwing you away

Bye bye, bye bye
No more crying, sleepless nights
And my pillow is dry
You should have acted right the first time
Cause there's no more second tries
Don't wanna hear your lies
So just stay out of my life

You had my mind gone in the wind
But you didn't know
What you had back then
And you wanna try it again
But there are no second chances
But there are no second chances

We was at the bottom
Baby that's where we started
But now we keep fighting

Cause you hurting my heart and

How would you feel
If I did the things you do
And I pulled a you on you
Expecting you to play the fool
Tell me how you would feel
If I said you was my man and
Was cheating on the side
And asked you for one more chance

And you know, and you know
How I do, how it go
If you hurt me one time
You ain't gone hurt me no mo
Could've been the best best best
But you hurt me instead, stead, stead boy

You had my mind gone in the wind
But you didn't know
What you had back then
But there are no second chances
But there are no second chances

We was at the bottom
Baby that's where we started
But now we keep fighting

There are no second chances
You don't get a second chance boy
You broke my heart the first time
Why would you get another try
