

Worth It

Sonta

You're supposed to be mine
You're supposed to be mine

Tell me was it worth it
I really hope that she is perfect
Cause you acting like you're so in love
Like you don't think about what we was
And I can't lie it hurted
You need an Oscar boy, you earned it
Cause you acting like it would be us
So why are you with her

First of all what the fuck you mean
You ain't mean to hurt me
You looked me in my face and seen me hurting
Now you be on my page, I see you lurking
Now you missing what we had
Reminiscing, getting flashbacks but you can just kiss my ass
Why you acting surprised
I witnessed you tell lies with my own eyes

You can't get no more of my time
You know you supposed to be mine
(You supposed to be mine)
You act like loving me is a crime
Cause you know I will never drop a dime
(I would never drop a dime)
You can't get no more of my time
You know you supposed to be mine
(You supposed to be mine)
You act like loving me is a crime
Cause you know I would never drop a dime
(I would never drop a dime)

I hope she was worth it boy
You out here clowning like a circus
I'm just being cautious, do ya shit
But just don't send me off in the process no
If you can't see I'm hurt then you must be blind
Sick of playing with you like a PS5
All this shit is tragic
I just needed balance, done with yo baggage
You are mine but I'm not gonna bargain
Set you free and let you leave like a warden
I made you feel too important
Really shoulda curved you
I'm off it like Virgil

You can't get no more of my time
You know you supposed to be mine
(You supposed to be mine)
You act like loving me is a crime
Cause you know I will never drop a dime
(I would never drop a dime)
You can't get no more of my time
You know you supposed to be mine
(You supposed to be mine)

You act like loving me is a crime
Cause you know I would never drop a dime

Tell me was it worth it
I really hope that she was perfect
Cause you acting like you're so in love
Like you don't think about what we was
And I can't lie it hurted
You need an Oscar boy, you earned it
Cause you acting like it would be us
So why are you with her
