

Monsters

Sophie And The Giants

Darling, you don't have to fight them
Demons in the night when it's dark and you're alone
Ghouls who will terrorise the fools
Who would tolerate their voodoo
And allow themselves to be blown off court
By these monsters

Uh, by these monsters, by these monsters

Darling, you don't have to fight them
Demons in the night when it's dark and you're alone
Fear off the dark when you're alone
The mystery of the great unknown
Out in the cold, the future blackens you
Hunted by the monster

Uh, by these monsters, by these monsters
Oh, by these monsters, by these monsters
By these monsters
