

boys r dumb! duh!

Sophie Cates

Oh

Invite me over 'cause you love me like a friend
Just to make me watch you hold her again
So I'll say that I'm tired and go then walk halfway home
Sit on the curve edge and stare down on my phone
Convince myself that I believe what I wrote
They said that I would find somebody to hold but you're all I know

And you swear you love me more than anything
Want me to lie and tell you it's been easy
To watch you move on while I take care of these Broken pieces where my heart should be

(Oh woah)
You say you don't understand
Why I'm not talking at the party, looking angry again
(Oh woah)
But there's a pain in my chest
'Cause I got into my head when she's kissing your neck
(Oh woah)
Oh
(Oh woah)
And you don't understand
(Oh woah)
Oh
That I'm not over it yet

Stop telling me you still feel bad
'Bout how you made me fall in love and then left
Bring it up and ruin my weekend again, forgiving your regrets

And you swear you love me more than anything
Want me to lie and tell you it's been easy
To watch you move on while I take care of these
Broken pieces where my heart should be

Time goes so slow, walking alone
And on my way home I see you when my eyes close
We both know why you call me crying
And I hear your lies
Deep down you wanna be mine

(Oh woah)
You say you don't understand
Why I'm not talking at the party, looking angry again
(Oh woah)
But there's a pain in my chest
'Cause I got into my head when she's kissing your neck
(Oh woah)
Oh
(Oh woah)
And you don't understand
(Oh woah)
Oh
That I'm not over it yet

(Oh woah)
Yeah, there's a pain in my chest
(Oh woah)
When she's kissing your neck, oh
(Oh woah) Oh
'Cause I'm not over it yet
(Oh woah) Oh
No, I'm not over it yet
