

ghosts!

Sophie Cates

You left your shadow here
Can you come and pick it up?
With all the boxes, dear
Of things you left and then forgot
Because I'm trying to clear
Out every memory of us

Oh, darling, you should know
It don't feel like I'm alone

I keep seeing ghosts and up the stairs
I feel something behind me, like you're there
I keep seeing your face in every mirror
I think I'm going crazy
But you're everywhere, baby

But you're everywhere, baby
But you're everywhere, baby

Are you messing with me?
Is this some kind of fucked up joke?
'Cause I checked yesterday
And that's not where I left your coat
You should feel my heartbeat
Every time I hear my phone

And I can't tell what's in my mind
Have you been coming to me at night?

I keep seeing ghosts and up the stairs
I feel something behind me, like you're there
I keep seeing your face in every mirror
I think I'm going crazy
But you're everywhere, baby

Please take the pictures
I swear that the eyes move
Please take your sweatshirt
No space in my bedroom (Ooh)
Take the mixtapes
They keep playing in the middle of the night
I'm messing with my own damn mind
You're everywhere, baby
You're everywhere, baby
Everywhere I go

I keep seeing ghosts and up the stairs
I feel something behind me, like you're there
I keep seeing your face in every mirror
Comin' up behind me
Like you've been trying to find me

And I keep getting haunted by these sounds
I know I haven't heard them since you were around
And I keep playing mind games with myself
I think I'm going crazy
But you're everywhere, baby
