

handle me

Sophie Cates

When we met I was dumb, I didn't see the red flags
Blaming exes like they're the reason you're acting like that Made me feel like I shouldn't be proud
Only want me when I'm not around
If you weren't the first thing on my mind, you'd call and attack

You don't tell me what I'm worth now
I got shit I gotta figure out
Can't have you in the way
Been working too hard to have time for these games
So get up outta my phone
For now, I'm better on my own
I'll be patient and wait
Should've appreciated

Me
And the way I walk in a room confidently
No, you couldn't stand when I followed other dreams
Used to let you hold me back, but, baby, see
It's your loss if you can't handle me

It's your loss if you can't handle me
It's your loss if you can't handle me

When we met I was young, I didn't know the difference Between loving somebody and losing yourself in it
Only holding my hand on the low
Wouldn't kiss me 'til we were alone
Didn't even realize there was something missing

You don't tell me what I'm worth now
I got shit I gotta figure out
Can't have you in the way
Been working too hard to have time for these games
So get up outta my phone
For now, I'm better on my own
I'll be patient and wait
Should've appreciated

Me
And the way I walk in a room confidently
No, you couldn't stand when I followed other dreams
Used to let you hold me back, but, baby, see
It's your loss if you can't handle me

It's your loss if you can't handle me
It's your loss if you can't handle me

You don't tell me what I'm worth now
I got shit I gotta figure out
Can't have you in the way
Been working too hard to have time for these games
So get up outta my phone
For now, I'm better on my own
I'll be patient and wait
