

Hearing In Colour

Sophie Ellis-Bextor

I'm hearing in colour, I'm seeing in sound
Inhaling emotions and touching no ground
I'm tasting the future, I'm wasting no time
And joy runs forever and ever because you are mine

A million shades in the spectrum since you came
A million senses spark when you call out my name

I'm hearing in colour
Glitch in my bloodstream
I'm tasting tomorrow
A feverish dream
I'm touched by the visions
It's filling the frame
I'm hearing in colour
When you call my name
When you call my name

I'm over and under
I'm full of the thirst
I'm starving the hunger
So peaceful it hurts

A million shades in the symphony you play
A million senses spark when you call out my name

I'm hearing in colour
Glitch in my bloodstream
I'm tasting tomorrow
A feverish dream
I'm touched by the visions
It's filling the frame
I'm hearing in colour
When you call my name
When you call my name

Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name

Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name

Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name

Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name
Calling my name

I'm hearing in colour, I'm seeing in sound

All the shades in the symphony, baby, since you've been around
