Supermoon

Sophie Hunger

I'm a supermoon and your friend in blue,
I couldn't be more perfect.
I'm a supermoon a hard balloon,
my life is like a desert.
I was cut out of your stone.
I'm empty, but I'm never alone.
Turn away, turn around,
you turn in circles all the time,
you're stuck and you're restless.
You're out of sight, you reappear,
when no one ever see you then.
You're lame and you're breathless.
I was cut out of your stone,
I'm empty but I'm never alone.
Sometimes I'm cold and sometimes I burn.
When I look at you, oh I,
I see the world.
I'm the one you're howling to,
but you gotta learn to say.
You gotta turn your eyes from me,
you gotta see things naked.
I was cut out of your stone.
I'm empty but I'm never alone.
Sometimes I'm cold and sometimes I burn.
When I look at you, oh I, I see the world.
Sometimes I'm cold and sometimes I burn.
When I look at you, oh I, I see the world.
