

Tiny Dictator

Sophie May

Can't have sex without thinking of my own mother's face
Can't get drunk, what if I black out and fuck everyone?
Oh God, what if I'm a paedophile?
That would make him smile

I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind
Oh, you can see him fox-trotting in the black part of my eyes
He's like a serial killer tryna ruin my life
Offering me sugar in his four-wheel drive
I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind

Can't fall in love, I might cheat on someone close to them and run
Can't watch porn, in my head my father's watching me and crying
Oh God, I'm a megalomaniac
Bet he's loving that

I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind
Oh, you can see him quick-stepping in the black part of my eyes
He's like a prisoner escaped from Alcatraz
Making it his mission just to make me sad
I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind
Oh, I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind

One day I'm gonna get free
I won't live under the fascist regime
Oh, my head won't have bars
And my thoughts will be free of guards
I won't live to serve the one who was once in charge

I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind
Oh, you'll see him tap-dancing on the grave where my body lies
He's like the zodiac killer, no he'll never get caught
Poisoning every single one of my thoughts
I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind
I've got a tiny dictator controlling me in my mind
