

Heartstorm

Sorn

Hello baby, with the baby blues
Usually I'm not the type to lose my cool
But hey, what else am I supposed to do?

When you're looking like a perfect crime
Got me feeling like a paper plane on fire
But can I fly you to paradise?

Heart in my mouth, I'm out of control
Head in the clouds
And that's how I know

There's a hell of a storm
Coming for me
I can see all the signs in the dark
It will come when you go
Leave me numb when it blows
In my heart
In my heart
In my heart

There's a spark in your eyes like the lightning
I can't help if I chase it too far
Yeah, I know when it hits
It will hurt like a bitch
In my heart
In my heart
In my heart

There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a heartstorm coming for me
There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a heartstorm coming for me

I should probably try to walk away
Try to build a wall before my willpower breaks
But I know there's no outrunning fate

'Cause I'm always craving something dangerous
Playing with forces that are bound to mess me up
So go on, make me a wreck for love

Heart in my mouth
I'm out of control
Head in the clouds
And that's how I know

There's a hell of a storm
Coming for me
I can see all the signs in the dark
It will come when you go

Leave me numb when it blows
In my heart
In my heart
In my heart

There's a spark in your eyes like the lightning
I can't help if I chase it too far
Yeah, I know when it hits
It will hurt like a bitch
In my heart
In my heart
In my heart

There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a heartstorm coming for me
There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a storm
Of the heart
There's a heartstorm coming for me
There's a heartstorm coming for me
