

Nobody

Sorn

Nonsense
First I bought it, then returned it
Your kiss
Told me all I need to know
You wish
I would let you take it further
As if I would ever take you home

You can buy the table
Pour the champagne all around
Pretend that you're not here
Overcompensating

Show off all your labels
But you still look like a clown
When you tell everyone
You're the greatest

But that's a no
I'll tell you something you don't know
You think you'll end up with
Somebody in your bed
But all you're gonna get
Is no

Oh no, no you won't get
Nobody, body, body, no
No, no, no you won't get
Nobody, body, body, no
You think you'll end up with
Somebody in your bed
But all you're gonna get
Is no
Oh no, no, you won't get nobody

Your eyes
Like to follow when I'm dancing
Alright
Keep on looking all you wish
But I
Don't believe in second chances
This time
What you see is all you get

You can flirt with other girls, but
They all see it too
Yeah, it's clear you're out here
Overcompensating
Flash around your gold watch
But you still look like a fool
When you tell everyone

But that's a no
I'll tell you something you don't know

But all you're gonna get
Is no

Oh no, no you won't get
Is no
Won't let you get none of this body
