

Scorpio

Sorn

Feel like I'm running, running away from myself
You think you're funny, the way you like to play
Feel like you putting me down, you just gotta see it clearly
See you clearly
(Don't fade away)

I close my eyes I lie awake and hear my own voice
I only hear a lot of noise a lot of noise
I close my eyes I lie awake and hear my own voice
(Nah)

Every night I talk to myself
And when I'm all a-lone
I still howl at the moon
Woo oo, woo oo, woo oo

I got me
I got nothing to lose
Fuhhh me
What am I suppose to do
Times up
I'm waiting on you
Shattered diamonds are still flawless

Feel like I'm walking walking right back to you
Why am I so serious, never know when to let go
Feel like people put you up, on a pedestal
(Don't fade away)

I close my eyes I lie awake and hear my own voice
I only hear a lot of noise a lot of noise
I close my eyes I lie awake and hear my own voice
(Nah)

Every night I talk to myself
And when I'm all a-lone
I still howl at the moon
Woo oo, woo oo, woo oo

I got me
I got nothing to lose
Fuhhh me
What am I suppose to do
Times up
I'm waiting on you
Shattered diamonds are still flawless

Whether I'm shattered or whole
I'm still full in my soul
Listening to my own mind
I look into my own eyes
Scorpio, til the moon rise

Every night I talk to myself
And when I'm all a-lone

I got me
Fuhhh me
What am I supposed to do
Times up
I'm waiting on you

(Flawless, flawless)
(Flawless, flawless, flawless)
(Flawless, flawless, flawless)
Waiting on you
