Phoenix

Sorry Boys

I thought when you would come
Everything would be better
I hoped all old sins would've vanished

But nothing has changed
No one's to blame
Phoenix in flames
I beg you to stay

You brought me up
In your body
I want you back
From the fire

And now since you have come
Everything is getting better
I feel like all old sins are forgiven

Something has changed
No one's to blame
Phoenix in flames
I beg you to stay

Phoenix in flames
I beg you to stay
Phoenix in flames
I beg you to stay

Your nest is so close
To the heavenly bodies
